

MS in Organization Development

Designed for experienced professionals who are on the pulse of business, the Pepperdine Master of Science in Organization Development prepares leaders in the art and science of managing strategic change.

The program, highly regarded as one of the top OD programs in the world, incorporates online learning with face-to-face intensives and has earned an international reputation as the premier graduate program in the field and as an innovator of experiential learning.

Two Year Schedule

Six face-to-face sessions plus integrated online learning

Campus

Various locations in California, Washington DC, China, Costa Rica, and France

Application Deadlines

Fall 2016

Round 1: November 2, 2015

Round 2: February 15, 2016

Round 3: May 2, 2015

Experience

Four to six years organization experience desired

Get Connected

Pepperdine University
West Los Angeles Campus
6100 Center Drive, Ste. 400
Los Angeles, CA 90045

(310) 568-5695
msod@pepperdine.edu

Program Highlights

The MS in Organization Development program at Pepperdine University features six high-impact, face-to-face sessions supported by online coursework. In three international field experiences students participate in real-time projects with expert faculty and alumni mentors.

As an MS in Organization Development student, you will benefit from a program that offers:

- Access to relevant change management practices
- Personal interaction with world-class OD faculty
- A global perspective through international trips
- An emphasis on fieldwork to apply knowledge
- An active network of fellow OD professionals

“The MSOD program is so much more than an education - starting with a network of alumni that includes some of the brightest and most accomplished OD professionals in the world.”

Jennifer Case, MSOD '14
Organization Development Manager
Acitivision Blizzard